Twitter Space Draft Party (optional) (Set a date so it can be scheduled with you as a co-host.) If you want. You can also host your own Draft Party somewhere else or skip and pick your own categories. objectives:
- pick 4 to 5 categories to review the subject against with the audience.
- Get an outline for detailed review, what do people want covered besides the five categories.

Review Template

Profile Link: Where can people find your
- Website
- Twitter
- Facebook
- linkedIn

Subject (noun): What is your review about? Try to keep to the exact name of the product, or Cardano thing.

Summary: Two bullet points
- One bullet summarizing the review detail
- One bullet summarizing your overall rating

Review Detail:

- Briefly introduce yourself. Explain why you are interested in the topic, and what your qualifications are as a reviewer.
- Introduce the project that you are reviewing.
  - What are the defining ideas and objectives of the project?
  - Any interesting tidbits about the founders or the project history?
  - Who is the intended audience?
  - How does it work?
  - How can people engage with it? (Get it, see it, use it, etc.

The introduction may be relatively shorter if there is already an article about it on the site - you may refer to that!

Thank anyone who helped or contributed to the review, and include official links to the project. (must be https)

The point of the review detail is a non-judgmental unbiased write up of the project. Reserve your review/constructive feedback for the Discussion Categories: the order they appear here will be their order on the site

- CATEGORY
    - Title: One word category title
    - Comment prompt: t*o help the public leave better reviews*
    - Content. Your reasoning behind your rating for this category. It should answer your comment prompt well. Your constructive feedback.